Penn pitcher

Skylar Szynski

Selected in fourth round (112th overall)

By the Oakland Athletics

In the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft

QUICK PITCHES

PENN DRAFT HISTORY: Skylar Szynski is the fourth Penn graduate selected in the Major League Baseball Draft in the Coach Greg Dikos Era (29 seasons). ... pitcher Brenden Stines was drafted by Houston in the 33rd round in 2009 out of Ball State University; pitcher David Haverstick was drafted by Arizona in the 16th round in 1997 out of Bethel College; pitcher Steve Roeder was drafted by Pittsburgh in the 34th round in 1988 out of Penn High School.

2015 STATE CHAMPS: Skylar Szynski led Penn to its fourth state championship last season. The Kingsmen beat Terre Haute North 3-2. Szynski took a no-hitter into the fifth inning. He pitched a complete game, striking out six. He finished the season with a 10-1 record.

MVP, MVP, MVP: Skylar Szynski was named the Northern Indiana Conference MVP in 2016. He led the Kingsmen to a perfect 12-0 record in league play.

PERFECT GAME: As a sophomore, Skylar Szynski pitched a perfect game against then defending state champion Elkhart Central, an 8-0 victory for the Kingsmen. He retired all 21 batters he faced, and never allowed a ball out of the infield.

NO-NO: Skylar Szynski also has a no-hitter to his credit in his high school career. The Kingsmen flamethrower no-hit the South Bend Washington Panthers this season in a 6-0 victory for Penn.

HOOSIER COMMIT: Skylar Szynski is an Indiana University commit.

2015 SUMMER HONORS: Skylar Szynski was chosen to pitch in the prestigious Area Code Games in California: the East Coast Pro showcase in Fla., and the Jupiter (Fla.) World Wood Bat Tournament.

STREAKING: After suffering the loss in Penn's against Carroll on April 8, in rainy weather with a sub-40 wind chill factor, Szynski has won 10 straight games for Penn.

NEXT UP: Skylar Szynski is scheduled to pitch for the Kingsmen on Saturday at noon vs. Zionsville in the Class 4-A Semistate at Kokomo.
